

Dysynni 6 Pwhelli 7

This was a Welsh Cup tie that proved to be fast and furious from the outset. Dysynni scored within 3 mins of the start, a superb driving run by captain Katy Latham saw her slot an acute angled shot into the back of the net, leaving the keeper stranded. Next it was that hunter Bethan Williams's turn to step neatly sideways round the keeper to put away the second, and then Catrin Davies banged in her first seeing Dysynni score 3 goals with 9 minutes. Pwhelli, who seemed in shock for the first 10 mins then suddenly got a grip on their hockey and started stringing some good attacks together, and saw them get one back, pulling Dysynni's defence apart. It was then player Catrin Davies again who found the net at the other end with a hard shot bobbling in front of the keeper and finding the spot once more. The second Pwhelli goal was a put away just before half time, but at this stage it was all Dysynni's game at 4-2

The second half saw changes made by both teams, and Pwhelli's blood was up, they ran several piercing drives into the heart of the Dysynni defence, but it was a very controversial penalty flick awarded to Pwhelli that unsettled the visitors, the score now at 4-3. The equaliser came with Dysynni still looking fragmented at the back. Now the game really came to life as Pwhelli took the lead for the first time with their fifth goal, and then quickly put away the second of the second half in, making it 6-4 to the home side. Catrin Davies for Dysynni was now become stronger and stronger with her forays down the right and one such attack saw her pull one back for Tywyn 6-5 Pwhelli scored again, Davies returned the compliment for her 4th, and as Dysynni searched hard for the equaliser the final whistle blew, and Pwhelli it was, who go through to the next round much to the dismay of the Tywyn side 7 – 6 to Pwhelli.
