

Ordinary Lives

Sunday 19th November at Dovey Yacht Club.
Doors open from 6.30pm for a 7pm start.

Two 45 minute talks with a break for drinks & raffle.

Canoeing in the land of the horse & Genghis Khan by Nuala Dunn.

Come along & listen to stories of canoeing on the Orkhon river. The traditional Mongolian Nadam festival which includes wrestling, archery, horse riding and music will also feature. Sounds intriguing!

Printing through the pandemic by Dave Bowen.

A small group of people got together at the start of the pandemic to produce visors for use throughout the UK. Hear about the amazing support that was given by the local community and some surprising and humorous tales of what went on. You'll also have the opportunity to see a 3D printer in action and take home a 3D printed memento.

Cost: £6 for adults & £4 for children (under 16) - pay on the door (please bring the correct change if possible).

All proceeds are donated to Odyssey, a charity that helps people living with & recovering from cancer.
